I am confident that as 'saved by GRACE Christians', we can handle these discussions in an understanding and compassionate way, seeking to be led by God's Holy Spirit for wisdom in our answers.

Because this brings up more questions, such as…

Q7. What about abuse in a marriage? (SEE… 1st Peter 3:7; 1st John 4:7-8; Colossians 3:18-21)

On this point, I admire this counsel I borrowed from the Website: 'Bible study for you'…
"As followers of Christ, we have the incredible gift of God's grace, which opens doors to second chances in our lives. This concept becomes beautifully relevant when considering remarriage after divorce. We can take comfort in knowing that God offers forgiveness and restoration, regardless of our past mistakes or choices. Embracing this grace allows us to step confidently into new relationships, trusting that God's mercy is always present, guiding our hearts and actions." – Unquote.

(SEE… Psalm 147:3; Psalm 103:12; 1st John 1:9; John 8:11)

Q9. How should the church react to divorcees in their membership?

_____

(SEE… Hebrews 4:12-13)

After discussion, we will go to a time of prayer with glad hearts for thanking God for His grace and loving kindness. …KRK
